

PRAYER CONFESSION FOR THE HUSBAND

Father, in the name of Jesus, I take Your Word and confess this day that I hearken to the Wisdom of God and my family and I shall dwell securely and in confident trust and shall be quiet without fear or dread of evil. I make my ear attentive to skillful and godly wisdom and incline and direct my heart and mind to understanding. I apply all of my power to the quest of it. I let not mercy, kindness and truth forsake me. I bind them about my neck and write them on the tablet of my heart. I prize the Wisdom of God highly and exalt her. She will exalt and promote me — she will bring me to honor because I have embraced her . . . for the Lord is my confidence firm and strong and shall keep my foot from being caught in a trap or hidden danger. When I go, the Word or Wisdom of God shall lead me; when I sleep, it shall keep me; when I wake, it shall talk to me. Therefore, I will speak excellent and princely things and the opening of my lips shall be for right things. All the words of my mouth are righteous — upright and rightstanding with God — and there is nothing contrary to truth or crooked in them. (If you are a Dad, pray this: As a dad, I will not provoke, irritate, or fret my children. I will not be hard on them or harass them, or cause them to become discouraged, sullen, morose and feel inferior and frustrated. I will not break or wound their spirit, but I will rear them tenderly in the training and discipline and the counsel and admonition of the Lord so that they honor and esteem and value me as a dad.) I will live considerately with my wife — with an intelligent recognition of our marriage relationship. I will honor my wife as physically the weaker. However, I do realize that we are joint-heirs to the throne with Jesus spiritually. I do this in order that our prayers will not be hindered or cut off.

I confess that we are a united family in harmony one with the other — that we are of one and the same mind — united in spirit — compassionate and courteous — tenderhearted and humbleminded. I believe for our welfare, happiness and protection because I love my family and respect them. Thank You, Father, that I am a man of good report — that I am successful in everything I set my hand to. I confess that I am uncompromisingly righteous. I capture human lives for God as a fisher of men; and as I do this, I have the confidence that You are the Lord God who teaches me to profit and leads me in the way that I should go . . . abundantly supplied with every need met! I have obtained the favor of the Lord and the will of God is done in my life!

Scripture references from the Amplified Bible: Proverbs 1:33; 2:2; 3:3; 4:8; 3:26; 6:22; 8:6, 8; Colossians 3:21; Ephesians 6:4; I Peter 3:7-9; Proverbs 11:30; Isaiah 48:17.